Education:

1998 – Graduated from the Orthodox High School, Ramleh – Israel. (Physics level)

1998 – Passed the government “Bagruth” examinations (matriculation) – this is a Prerequisite to any university studies.

1999 – Began studying German language at Goethe Institute in Tel Aviv in preparation for medical studies in Germany.

1999 – Left for Germany for continuation of language studies.

July, 2000 – Graduated from Sprachen College language school in Freiburg.

October 2000 – Present, Student at Freiburg University (Germany), faculty of medicine. During my three years of my clinical studies I attended courses in Gynecology, Surgery part 1&2, Urology, Orthopedics, Pharmacology 1 & 2, Pathology 1 & 2, Psychiatry, Neurology, Pediatrics, Dermatology and Internal Medicine. I passed all courses with success.1

September 2003 till April 2004 – Research project at the University of Pennsylvania medical school. My project dealt with the Fibrinolytic system and in specific with the tissue-type plasminogen activator (tPA) and two other Mutations of this enzyme. We tested the effect of tPA and the two Mutations on the vascular tone.

Languages:

Arabic, Hebrew, English, German.

Apprentice Program:

Feb.-April 2003 – I took an apprentice position with Professor Abdullah Hajjihye M.D. of the Hebrew University. I worked with Professor Hajjihye in the clinics he operates.

Feb.-April 2005 – I took an apprentice position (clinical elective) with Dr. Steven Brearley (Vascular Surgery) of the Whipps Cross University Hospital in London.

Other Activities:

November 2004: Winner of the DAAD Award. I have been chosen from the Albert-Ludwig-University of Freiburg for the best foreign student achievements for the year 2004.

October 1998: As member of the community Neve Shalom/Wahat As-Salam (a cooperative Jewish-Arab village in Israel – www.nswas.org) I was called upon several times to take part in youth activities to promote peace and understanding in the Middle East. Part of these activities took place in different countries, including a speaking tour- with other youth in the U.S. We were invited by the Center for Peace in the Middle East, in conjunction with the Bronfman gallery in Washington D.C.

February 2003: I represented my village Neve Shalom/ Wahat al Salam as part of a delegation at the Capitol Hill in Washington D.C., where we spoke to different Congressmen about our Village and the Situation in the Middle East.

Work Experience:

Throughout my studies at Freiburg University I have held different part time jobs, including work at Freiburg University Hospital as assistant to doctors and nurses and working as an assistant at the Kantonspital in Basel (Switzerland).

Summers of 1999 and 2000 – Worked as lifeguard in a number of public swimming pools in Israel. (I am a licensed lifeguard).
